DRAFT.

In continuation of the rules published with Notification No. J. 982—Legis. 4-3, dated the 27th September 1905, and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Mysore Co-operative Societies Regulation, III of 1905, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to make the following additional rules :—

(1) Any dispute in respect of the business of a society between any person who—

(a) is or has been a member of a society, or

(b) claims through any one who is or has been a member, and such society or its committee or any of its officers, shall be referred to the Registrar for decision.

(2) The Registrar, on receiving notice of such a dispute as is referred to in Rule 1, shall either decide the dispute himself or shall refer it for arbitration to three arbitrators, of whom one shall be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third by the Registrar.

(3) Where any party to the dispute fails to nominate an arbitrator within fifteen days after receipt of notice from the Registrar, the Registrar shall himself make the nomination.

(4) In proceedings under Rule 2 before the Registrar or arbitrators, the statements of the parties who attend and of such witnesses as they may produce shall be reduced to writing, and upon the evidence so recorded, and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by either side, a decision or award, as the case may be, shall be given in accordance with justice, equity and good conscience.

(5) Where the decision or award involves the payment of money or delivery of grain and such payment or delivery is not made within one week or such further time as may be allowed by the Registrar, the Registrar shall send the record of the proceedings to the Deputy Commissioner for enforcement of the decision or award; and the Deputy Commissioner shall thereupon enforce the decision as if it were a decree for arrears of Land Revenue.

(6) 1. Any party aggrieved by an award of arbitrators may appeal to the Registrar, within one month of the date of the award.

2. Every order made by the Registrar under these rules shall be final and conclusive.

(7) In proceedings under these rules, neither party shall be represented by any legal practitioner.
